

WEL, WORLD ELDER LAND

"WORLD ELDERS PEACE WEEK"™ PROCLAMATION

SEPT. 17-SEPT. 23, 2006

Whereas,

elders, caregivers and all community members where elders live, know that our actions, thoughts, words and attitudes are ways to contribute with the evolutionary process of peacemaking

Whereas,

our elders, our treasures, know that we are living in a beautiful world whose respect and reverence for human life and all living things, makes nurturing PEACE and better ways to live 'TOGETHER' a priority

Whereas,

in 1981 the United Nations proclaimed that the International Day of Peace, September 21, would be "devoted to commemorating and strengthening the ideals of peace among all nations and all human beings" and all elders in the world are invited to actively join this special commemoration

Whereas,

WEL, World Elder Lands extends an invitation to all elders, caregivers and the communities where elders live, to include the call for a week of global ceasefire and non-violence, and invite all nations and people in the world to honor the cessation of hostilities among members of the human family and all living things

Whereas,

let there be PEACE on Earth and let it begin with me... in my actions, in my thoughts, in my words, in my hands, in my writings, in my heart and in my soul. All elders are invited to read the "Reflection For Peace" poem and to write their own heart's desires for a better world

Therefore,

WEL, World Elder Land, elders of the world and the human family, do hereby join the United Nations to proclaim September 21, as "The International Day of Peace" and September 17-23, as

"World Elder Peace Week"
